Permission First

Photos are optional — the book works with drawings alone

- 1

ASK THE SCHOOL FIRST

Some schools have a photo policy for class gifts. Check with the office or teacher before collecting any photo.
- 2

ASK EVERY FAMILY

Send the permission slip home. Use a photo only if every child who can be recognized in it — even in the background — has a “yes” slip. No slip back means no photo.
- 3

USE THE SCHOOL’S OWN PHOTOS ONLY WITH PERMISSION

Class photos taken by the school may belong to it or the photographer.
- 4

OPT-OUT IS EASY

A child whose family says no is included with a drawing instead — never left out, never blurred.
- 5

KEEP IT PRIVATE

Do not post the book or its photos online. A digital copy goes to the teacher only, and only if every family whose child appears in it ticked the digital-copy box.

WHEN

WHEN	WHAT TO DO
4 weeks before	Ask the school about photos; decide drawings-only if in doubt.
3 weeks before	Send permission slips; ask for photos of class activities only.
2 weeks before	Collect prints or files privately; order prints in the sizes on the frames.
1 week before	Attach prints and drawings; write captions; check, then bind in sheet protectors (page 14).

PHOTOS ARE OPTIONAL

Never require a photo. A class book of drawings is just as treasured — and every frame in this kit takes a drawing.

Two slips per sheet · cut on the dashed line

Class book photo permission

Our class is making a printed memory book for our teacher. It may include photos of class activities. May a photo that shows your child appear in it? Photos will not be posted online. If this slip does not come back, your child will be in the book with a drawing, not a photo.

CHOOSE ONE

- ☐ Yes, a photo with my child may be used ☐ No photo please — a drawing instead

OPTIONAL — TICK ONLY IF YOU AGREE

- ☐ The teacher may also keep a digital copy of the book
