Five kindness rules and a 60-minute program anyone can run

FIVE KINDNESS RULES

- Every activity is optional. Passing is always fine.
- Every family shape counts: step, adopted, chosen, blended, near and far.
- No quizzes about private things — ages, money, health, relationships.
- Photos only with a yes; anyone can wear a “no photos” dot.
- Mix the ages at every table; give elders the comfy seats and the shade.
