Quick Host Guide

A useful 15-minute add-on

AT A GLANCE

2–16 people • 15–60 minutes • friends, families and couples

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

- ☐ Print at 100% / Actual Size. Card stock is optional for the cut-apart cards.
- ☐ Choose a partner and share a prompt together. You may pass or swap cards. Guests may also take part individually.
- ☐ Offer note cards; a guest may keep a note private or give it away.
- ☐ Give each snack a name or label. For each category, name the eligible snacks one at a time; each guest may raise a hand for one snack in that category. Record the hands beside that snack.
- ☐ Label snack ingredients and common allergens; nobody has to taste anything.

WHAT TO PRINT

ITEM	PAGE	HOW MANY
Prompt cards	3	Six cards per sheet; pairs can share a card
Notes + snack tally	4	Four notes per sheet; print enough for guests who want one

FRIENDLY RULES

Keep comments kind and specific. Snack votes are just for fun—never money, buy-ins or payouts. Tied snacks share the title.

Six Teammate Prompts

Cut apart; guests may trade or pass

TEAMMATE 1

What is one strength your teammate brings to a group?

TEAMMATE 2

Name a small tradition you would enjoy starting together.

TEAMMATE 3

Which snack best matches your teammate's personality, and why?

TEAMMATE 4

What is one moment this year that made you laugh together?

TEAMMATE 5

Choose a team color pair that represents both of you.

TEAMMATE 6

What is one kind thing your teammate does that deserves a cheer?

Notes + Snack Vote

Cut the notes; vote on snacks by show of hands

Best dip

Name each snack in a category one at a time; each guest raises a hand for one snack per category. The table holds two snacks per category: add rows on the back for more. If two snacks tie, celebrate both; do not add a forced tie-break.
