

FREE PREVIEW · NOT THE GAME ITSELF

The Final Course at Saffron House

A tasting dinner at Saffron House, a menu served on the minute, and the house's handwritten recipe book waiting in the library. Between the fourth course and the fifth, the foundation's chair never came back to the table.

USE THIS PREVIEW TO PLAN

- Page 2 shows all six characters, with a dress idea for each, so you can start casting your guests.
- Page 3 tells you what the full game asks of a host, so you can decide whether it suits your party.

WHAT THIS PREVIEW IS NOT

It has no character booklets, no evidence and no solution — you cannot play the mystery with it. The full game is a separate download.

Before you buy

What the full game asks of you and your guests.

IS IT RIGHT FOR YOUR PARTY?

Guests	4 to 6 adults or teens (14+). Four characters are always played; two more join for 5 or 6.
Time	About 80 minutes, all at the table. Designed to this length; not yet timed with a real group.
The host	Reads a short script and opens three envelopes. The host can play a character too, if they print without reading.
Seated	Nobody has to stand, act or move: the whole game is played around one dining table. Nobody has to eat anything either.
Content	A fictional death that happens offstage and is never described, and has nothing to do with the food. Nobody needs to eat anything, drink, dress up or act; the whole game is played seated at the table.

WHAT THE FULL GAME INCLUDES

- A host guide with an exact print list for 4, 5 or 6 guests, a read-aloud script, cue cards and what to do if someone cancels.
- Six player booklets of three pages each: a dossier, and an Act 2 and an Act 3 page.
- Three sealed act envelopes of evidence — the menu card, the kitchen's pass ticket, statements — a house plan, detective notes, a timeline board and ballots.
- A sealed solution that proves the answer step by step, with why it was not anyone else.
- Party extras: invitations, place cards, name badges, a menu, awards, a teaser poster and invitation words to copy.
- A large-print copy of every player booklet (about 17 pt), for any guest who prefers bigger type.
